

Collection of 3 PowerPoint Shows : Poems

1. Come Day Go Day by Barrie Wade (9 slides)
2. January Brings The Snow—traditional (14 slides)
3. 3 poems : Months and Seasons; Seasons Turn, Weather by Theresa Heine. (17 slides)

 Months and Seasons	 January, middle of winter Dull! So dull! So cold! Let's make a snowball, let's have a bit of winter - remember, don't be stiff!	 February, middle of winter Dull! So dull! So cold! Let's fly a kite, and play some games Springing, springing, don't be dull!	 July, August, middle of summer Dull! So dull! So hot! Let's go swimming, let's see a pond! December, remember, don't be bored!	 October, middle of autumn Dull! So dull! So cold! Let's see the leaves fall, let's have a bit of remember, remember, don't be stiff!
 Months of the year, all through the year, One gets behind another year! There are seasons, and it's best for children, to play, remember and ... remember!	 Seasons Turn by Theresa Heine	 Spring to garden, Lush green, Soft grass beds, These new hot beds.	 Summer glow: The sun is so hot, Can you feel a hotly spot!	 Autumn's fall, It rains and rains, Blow the leaves and bang the doors.
 Winter's daily, Snow and frost, Some get The gloves you lost.	 Weather by Theresa Heine	 Weather comes and weather goes, Remember, children, don't be stiff!	 September cold and November hot, Remember, children, don't be stiff!	 Summer sun and springtime green, The brightest rainbow you've seen.
 The weather The weather The weather	 Weather by Theresa Heine

These Power Points link with the Posters and Children's Cards see 55

See also thumbnails for 55