Oh, you cannae shove your granny off a bus,
Oh, you cannae shove your granny off a bus,
Oh, you cannae shove your granny,
For she's your mammy's mammy,
You cannae shove your granny off a bus!

You can shove your other granny off a bus,
You can shove your other granny off a bus,
You can shove your other granny,
For she's your daddy's mammy,
You can shove your other granny off a bus!

Oh, you cannae shove your granny off a bus,
Oh, you cannae shove your granny,
For she's your mammy's mammy,
Oh, you cannae shove your granny off a bus!

In the story, Katie Morag and the Grand Concert, this is the song that Granny Island played on her fiddle for Katie Morag. She soon learned the words which were a bit naughty....

You can shove your other granny off a bus,
You can shove your other granny off a bus,
You can shove your other granny,
For she's your daddy's mammy,
You can shove your other granny off a bus!

(repeat last verse)

▶ On top of spaghetti,
All covered with cheese,
I lost my poor meatball,
When somebody sneezed.

The tree was all covered
With beautiful moss,
It grew lovely meatballs,
All covered with sauce.

It rolled off the table,
And onto the floor,
And then my poor meatball,
Rolled out of the door.

▶ It rolled in the garden,
And under a bush,
And then my poor meatball,
Was nothing but mush.

So if you eat spaghetti,
All covered with cheese,
Hold on to your meatballs,
And don't ever sneeze.

The mush was as tasty
As tasty could be,
And early next summer,
It grew into a tree.

John Jacob Jingleheimer Schmidt

His name is my name, too!

Whenever we go out,

The people always shout

John Jacob Jingleheimer Schmidt!

Da da da da da da

Repeat verse again but not as loud,
and then shout "John Jacob Jingleheimer Schmidt"

Repeat verse again, whispering,
but shout "John Jacob Jingleheimer Schmidt"
