

125. Ramayana for Y2 and Lower KS2

Captions and story sequencing cards (A4) for the less able (same as in resource 124 but in black & white only) cut & stick or laminate for group activity.

In India there was a prince called Rama and a princess called Sita.

Rama's father, the king, wanted Rama to be king when he died.

The queen was angry and made the king send Rama away.

Sita and his brother, Lakshman, went with him into the forest.

When the king died Bharat refused to be king.

Bharat went to the forest to bring Rama back.

Children's cut and stick sentences.

Half of the A4 page is shown left.

The left side of the page has the sentences in the correct order and the right side has them jumbled up.

The sentences match the cards/pictures shown above.

VERY LOW QUALITY
SAMPLES

Rama told Bharat that he had promised the king not to return for fourteen years.

Bharat took Rama's golden sandals and put them on the throne.

An evil demon called Ravana took Sita away to his island.

Hanuman, the monkey king, found Sita.

Rama killed Ravana with his magic bow and rescued Sita.

People lit divas to celebrate their safe return.