

134. Story Starts with a magic theme

Thirty Story Starters (3 per A4 sheet) and an A4 Poster (shown below).

Zita the witch knew that she was the ugliest witch in the world but she was also the kindest witch in the world. Whenever the village children saw her they ran away and hid from her. It made Zita very sad.

One day, in the middle of winter, everything changed and this is how it happened...

LOW QUALITY
SAMPLES

When Tom and Sam found a magician's hat and wand they took it to school to show their class. They had no idea that the hat and wand belonged to a real magician until they took them out to play.

What happened next was a bit scary and changed everything at school. Everyone was in a panic until the real magician turned up looking for his magic!

Once there was a family of ghosts and it was getting very near to Halloween. Baby ghost hadn't learned many tricks yet and his mum had been trying to teach him. Sometimes he got his tricks just right but not always. His mum thought it was time for the two smallest ghosts to go out and try some of their tricks on the children who lived down the road. That night they started to plan what trick they would play

There was once a very strange house. In the day time it looked like a normal house but as soon as it grew dark strange things started to happen. No one was brave enough to go near that house. No one except Tom and his big brother Sam. One night they crept through a gap in the broken fence.....

