Our New Baby

Betty At The Party

"When I was at the party,"
Said Betty, aged just four,
A little girl fell off her chair
Right down upon the floor;
And all the other little girls
Began to laugh, but me -
I didn't laugh a single bit,"
Said Betty seriously.

"Why not?" her mother asked her,
Full of delight to find little heart! - y kind.

my darling?"

"y,
-"

ing to have a baby!
old me yesterday.
brother or a sister,
's growing it each day.

there in her tummy.
I see it? It's right there - ld my hand and feel it move ummy doesn't care.

r, does it like the things
ummy has to eat?
yucky vegetables?
hard to chew up meat?

hat it comes out of there get too old ...
Mummy's eating ice cream!
t make the baby cold?

Vanessa or the lucky egg

Her mum told me that right inside
Her tummy there have been:
A million, billion tiny eggs,
So small they can't be seen.
And every month they come and go,
But just occasionally
One grows into a baby
And is born like you and me.

You cannot tell which one will grow,
Or what sort it will be,
There might be more than one, like twins,
Or triplets if there's three.

Mum could have had a baby Tom,
A baby Ann or Fred,
But she had me, Vanessa
Wasn't I a lucky egg!
