I dreamt I went to Story Land
And everyone was there,
Little Red Riding Hood,
Goldilocks,
And every kind

A baby bear with his mum and dad
Paddington Bear and Pooh
With bowls of porridge and pots of
And marmalade sandwiches

A princess played with a golden ball
She taught a frog to catch.
A magic goose laid golden
And one began to hate!

I came upon a little house
All made of gingerbread,
But when I tried to take a bite
I woke up in my bed.

I'm going back to Story Land
Before the pictures fade.
I'll open up my story-book
And turn another page
