

Silly Rhymes

A hibernating hedgehog,
Woke up to greet the spring,
He'd set the alarm for half-past May,
But he hadn't heard it ring.
In fact he'd gone and overslept,
A silly thing to do,
Not only had he missed the spring,
He'd missed the summer too.

Fuzzy Wuzzy was a bear,
Fuzzy Wuzzy had no hair,
Fuzzy Wuzzy wasn't fuzzy,
Was he?

Mrs Pig,
Was not very big,
Her husband even smaller,
From morning till evening
They'd hang from the ceiling,
In the hope that they'd make themselves taller.

Kinga the kanga,
And Ricky the roo,
Bounced up and down.
That's what kangaroos do.
Kanga could jump
Not just one foot but two,
And deep in her pouch,
Ricky played Peek-a-Boo.

Mary had a little lamb,
A lobster and some prunes,
A glass of milk, a piece of pie,
And then some macaroons;
It made the naughty waiters grin
To see her order so
And when they carried Mary out,
Her face was white as snow.

Little Miss Muffet,
Sat on a tuffet,
Eating her Irish stew;
There came a big spider
Who sat down beside her
And she ate him up, too,
With the stew.

There was an old person from Fratton
Who would go to church with his hat on,
"If I wake up," he said,
"With a hat on my head,
I will know that it hasn't been sat on."

I wish I were a little grub,
With whiskers on my tummy,
I'd climb into a honey pot
And get my tummy gummy.

Algy met a bear
A bear met Algy
The bear grew bulgy
The bulge was Algy.

I'd like to be an octopus,
With arms on every corner,
I'd scare my grannie close to death,
I wouldn't even warn her.

Ooey Gooney was a worm,
A wondrous worm was he,
He stepped upon a railway track,
A train he did not see -
Ooey! Gooney!
