

192. Recounts KS1

Poems to change into recounts

Can it be a recount?

Maybe I could change it to a story using an i.i.e.

2008

1 Daddy fell into the pond by Alfred Hayes

- 1. A week of August weather
- 2. Over the park by the pond
- 3. Every Monday
- 4. Over the park by the pond

- 6. Mum for a day by Fred Corbett

Express yourself! This is an open poem with a title and a question. You can write a story about it.

3 When I was one

And remember that you can use words and phrases from the poem to help you.

4 Three days into March

On Monday the sun was shining and the wind was blowing. On Tuesday it was raining and on Wednesday it was snowing.

5 Every Monday

On Monday I go to school and I see my friends. On Tuesday I go to school and I see my friends. On Wednesday I go to school and I see my friends.

6 Over the park

When I was one I went to the park. I saw many trees and flowers. I saw many children playing.

7 Mary lost her coat

When I was one I lost my coat. I was in the park and I saw many children. I was very sad.

8 Birthdays

On my birthday I have a party. I see my friends and I eat a cake. I have a very happy birthday.

9 Fishy

I went to the pond and I saw many fish. I saw a big fish and a small fish. I saw many different fish.

10 Mum for a day

Mum found her coat. Mum found her hat. Mum found her fifty pence. How much do you think of that?

11 Last of all

When I was one I went to the pond. I saw many fish and I saw many children. I was very happy.

12 So is the budgie

At the San Life Centre there were many fish. There were many children and many fish. We didn't see any fish.

13 Last of all

Mum found her coat. Mum found her hat. Mum found her fifty pence. How much do you think of that?

14 So is the budgie

When I was one I went to the pond. I saw many fish and I saw many children. I was very happy.

15 Mum for a day

Mum found her coat. Mum found her hat. Mum found her fifty pence. How much do you think of that?

16 Last of all

When I was one I went to the pond. I saw many fish and I saw many children. I was very happy.
