

(7) Pond Life poem Posters

Ten A4 poems relating to ponds:

First lines...

1. Look into the pond—what can you see by Andrea Lewis
2. Ponds are like
3. Today the Pond is Still—Wes Magee (duck)
4. A day at the pond—Jason Petz (below)
5. We had a sudden storm today (frogs)
6. Look at them flit by Mary Anne Hoberman (fish)
7. Where is the frog?
8. A tadpole squiggle (tadpole to frog)
9. A black dot, A jelly tot (tadpole to frog)
10. Daddy fell into the pond

A day at the pond

I went to the pond to catch a frog,
I searched and searched on every log.
I brought with me a great big tub,
And sat it beneath a flowering shrub.
I searched up high in the trees,
And scraped up both of my knees.
I crawled around on the ground,
looking for something laying around.
I had mud all over me from my head to my toes,
I even had it on my nose!
My stomach told me it was time to eat,
So I put my shoes back on my feet.
As I walked away feeling very sad,
I saw a frog sitting on a lily pad.
My face lit up with a great big smile,
for he must of been there for quite awhile.
I leaped into the water up to my knees,
and he jumped away
with the greatest of ease!

Jason Petz

