

90A. Poems about clothes

A set of 23 A4 Poster Poems for display

There's a hole in my pants.
It's our washing machine.
It's eating our clothes,
Not washing them clean.

As it churns round and round
It snorts and it sneezes Chewing holes in dad's shirts
And ripping mum's knickers.

These are low grade
SAMPLES only

I've got a pair of magic shoes
they take me to the moon.
Dad says, "Watch out for rockets,"
And mum says, "Come back soon."

I've got a pair of magic shoes
they take me to the stars, and sometimes if I'm early,
I'll stop for tea on Mars.

I've got a pair of magic shoes
I can jump as high as a school.

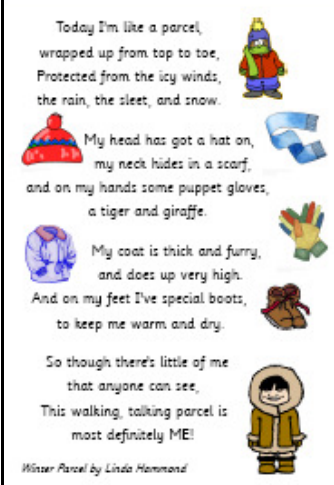

Today I'm like a parcel,
wrapped up from top to toe, Protected from the icy winds,
the rain, the sleet, and snow.

My head has got a hat on,
my neck hides in a scarf,
and on my hands some puppet gloves,
a tiger and giraffe.

My coat is thick and furry,
and does up very high.
And on my feet I've special boots,
to keep me warm and dry.

So though there's little of me that anyone can see,
This walking, talking parcel is most definitely ME!
